Country Fair Meeting

Tomorrow night we will be holding the first Country Fair meeting of the year. Below is a list of people who have already volunteered to coordinate stalls:

Book stall	Armstrongs
Trash & treasure	Cindy
Cakes	Shelley
Snow cone/fairy floss	Vanessa
Hotdog/cob	Cindy
Plant stall	Nicole
Facepainting	Cindy
Jumping castle	Vanessa
Chocolate wheel	Priscilla
Cook Book	Shelley

There are still stalls that require a coordinator and we'd love to hear any new ideas. There is an enormous amount of work to be done before our Fair on 31st October, so join us at 7pm in the 4/5/6 room tomorrow night.

Swimming Carnivals

Congratulations to our primary students who had an excellent day in the pool during last Tuesday's Small Schools Carnival. Ava, Lucy, Declan, Iszi, Chloe, Jack, Kobey, Erin, Tori, Sienna, Raphie and Reese also participated in the district carnival in Thursday. Mrs J said their effort and behavior was outstanding, well done.

Terara Country Music Campout

Next Friday 13th March our 4/5/6 students are performing at the Terara Country Music Campout between 1 and 2pm. Students will receive a note this week which will need to be signed and returned. Students have been asked to wear 'country clothing' for the performance! - more details will be provided on the note.

The P&C are also holding a cake stall at the event on Saturday 14th March. If you are able to bake for the stall or assist on the day, please complete the slip at the back of this newsletter and return it to school.

Year 6 Leadership Day

This Thursday our Year 6 students will be attending a leadership day at Killalea Environmental Centre near Shellharbour. Their Year 6 peers from our surrounding small schools will be joining us.

Please note that students can wear plain clothes but must have appropriate footwear, with closed toes.

Have a great week,

Rod White

Nowra High School Information Session

Tomorrow afternoon Nowra High School will be hosting an information session for students who are interested in attending Year 7 in 2016.

A flier was sent home with Year 6 students last week.

A reminder that if you reside in Worrigei and intend to send your child to Nowra High School, you will be considered as an out of zone applicant.

3/4 AFL Day

Next Wednesday 11th March our 3/4 students are participating in an AFL gala day. Notes were sent out last week, please ensure they are returned by the end of this week.

District Soccer Trials

This Wednesday we wish Declan, Zachary, Rory, Jayden, Callan and Kobey the best of luck as they participate in the PSSA Soccer trials. Good luck boys!

Spaghetti Bolognaise Day

A reminder that this Wednesday 4th March the Tuckshop will be having a Spaghetti Bolognaise Day. Notes and money were required by last Friday Feb.

Ice blocks will also be available for $1.00.

Saint George Illawarra Dragons Visit

Last Thursday we were treated to a visit from NRL Dragons players and education officers who spoke to the children about making good choices at school, at home and in the community.

The primary students then had the opportunity to play some skills based activities outside.

Please use the following bank details if you are making payment towards the school online:

School Assembly

There will be a school assembly tomorrow, commencing at 2:10pm. All parents are invited to join us.

Tuckshop News

Mini Potato Top Pies are now unavailable. They are now no longer stocked by our supplier.

Book Club

Orders for issue 2 Book Club are due back to school by Friday 13th March.

Car Park

A reminder that the car park is for staff/tradesman only as it is important to limit traffic into our school to help keep our children safe.

Signing In & Out

All students need to be signed in by an adult if they arrive after the 9am morning bell. Visitors also need to sign in & out. Office staff need to know who is on the premises at all times. Again this is for safety reasons.

Uniforms

All clothes need to be clearly labelled, this makes returning the item to the owner a lot easier.

Paws 'n' Tales

Seasons will start in April at Shoalhaven Library it is an exciting new reading program for children 4-8 years. For more information call Carla at the library.
